

Operating Standards

All MSW employees and associates agree to the following operating standards.

- In all our dealings with customers and each other our employees and associates will:
 - Conduct ourselves as if our books were open
 - Only work with people we believe we can help
 - Introduce clients to a third party if we think it would be of benefit to them
 - Work towards sharing what wisdom we have
 - Work for the true ease, comfort and peace of mind of our clients in both the expression of their concerns and the underlying causes
 - Take only what we need for easeful living
 - Not work for status or greed
 - Put together a package of all the suppliers clients need to talk to including all current suppliers where appropriate
